

2009 PALOS BANK SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENTS

Eleven area high school graduates were each awarded $2,000 scholarships from Palos Bank and Trust as part of the Palos Bank Foundation Scholarship Program established in 2001. The winners were selected by their respective schools for their academic performance and participation in extracurricular activities. Palos Bank has pledged to donate $1 million in scholarships over a 30-year period as their way of giving back to the community.

Gregory J. Paetow, president of Palos Bank and Trust, is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2009 scholarships. They are: Nicole Filippone of Evergreen Park graduated from Mother McAuley High School and will attend St. Louis University; Lindsay Glos of Orland Park graduated from Providence Catholic High School and will attend Lewis University; Gary Grenda of Tinley Park graduated from Victor J. Andrew High School and will attend Indiana University; Christine Kim of Orland Park graduated from Carl Sandburg High School and will attend the St. Louis University; Leo Kirsch of Frankfort graduated from Lincoln-Way East High School and will attend the University of Illinois-Urbana/Champaign; Theresa Kurth of Palos Hills graduated from Amos Alonzo Stagg High School and will attend the University of Illinois-Urbana/Champaign; Robert Morrissey, Jr. of Alsip graduated from Alan B. Shepard High School and will attend the University of Illinois-Urbana/Champaign; Monica Nealis of Alsip graduated from Marist High School and will attend Western Michigan University; Daniel Schliffka, III of New Lenox graduated from Lincoln-Way Central High School and will attend Harding University; Thomas Uher of Lockport graduated from Lockport Township High School and will attend the University of Illinois-Urbana/Champaign; Jacklyn Vander Laan of Frankfort graduated from Chicago Christian High School and will attend Olivet Nazarene University.
